

St Patrick's Catholic Church Gigs – Saturday and Sunday Acoustic Duos

Saturday 3 November

1pm	Cheryl Durongpisitkul Gelareh Pour	saxophone kamanche, voice	These two exciting improvisers met for the first time on Myf Warhurst's show to promote the festival - this will be their second meeting and first concert together!
2:30pm	Starlite acoustic duo (UK)	Campbell guitar, bass, voice	An exclusive opportunity to get an acoustic style sneak preview of two of UK's blues finest.
4pm	Afrolankan System	Drumming african and sri lankan percussion	Sri Lankan percussionists Ray Pereira and Kanchana Karunaratna have used their wealth of experience and knowledge of both African and Sri Lankan rhythms and dance to come up with a new style of drumming

Sunday 4 November

1pm	Cepi Kusmiadi (Indonesia) Leo Kavanagh	percussion drums	A first time meeting of totally different drumming traditions and cultures.
2:30pm	Alon Ilsar Tom Fryer	drums/ guitar	True masters of rhythm, harmony and melody - they literally have played everything from the Marios Brothers theme to Ethiopian grooves and the various hits of the seminal band, The Colours
4pm	Stone Echidna	trumpet guitar	Stone Echidna are two members from with I Hold The Lion's Paw. Reuben Lewis and Dave Brown, a duo that states they "designs and build a wide range of high quality earthmoving sounds".